Caverion divests ALEA GmbH in Austria

Caverion has sold ALEA GmbH, an Austrian provider of soft facility services with 230 employees, to Avalon GmbH. ALEA was acquired earlier this year as part of the acquisition of technical facility management company PORREAL. The divestment was closed today.

“At Caverion, we together with PORREAL, focus on offering our customers a wide range of technical facility services and smart, sustainable solutions,” says Manfred Simmet, Head of Caverion’s Austria division.

The divestment price is not disclosed.
